Medical, Welfare or Care/Support Needs 	To understand how your health or welfare will be improved by moving home	If you have an existing and recent document from a clinician (for example a nurse specialist, consultant, GP) or other professional (health visitor, social worker or occupational therapist) that states how your health or welfare will be improved by moving home, Homes4Wiltshire will consider it. You do not need to request a new letter from your GP. If necessary we will contact medical or social care professionals for further information. Please note in making a housing application, you consent to the necessary exchange of information. If you are struggling to cope in your present home because of its physical unsuitability, and it cannot be adapted for your needs, you may request a housing occupational therapy Assessment. If you reside in Wiltshire Council's area, please contact the council's Adult Care Department on 0300 456 0111; if not, please contact your own local authority. If you seek Extra Care Housing, our colleagues in Adult Care will be in contact with you to perform a care and support assessment. The assessment is essential if you wish to be considered for Extra Care Housing. If you do not wish for a care and support assessment, please telephone Homes4Wiltshire on 0300 456 0104.
Dependency of children 	To confirm that your home is your child's main and principal residence and is dependent upon you	Normally, Complete Child Tax Credit or Child Benefit award letters from the current tax year or the previous tax year if within the last six months showing your name and address and your children's names, and/or a complete bank or building society statement from within the last three months, showing the parent's name and address, including credits for Child Benefit and, if relevant, Child Tax Credit (may be the same statement(s) as for income). If you have more than two children, and are not receiving Child Tax Credit, please supply a standard letter addressed to you as the parent of the child from a GP, health visitor service, registered child minder, children's nursing service or school showing you are the parent contact for the child. You should not need to request this specially, because all these agencies will have corresponded with you. If you are caring for a child who is not your own, and no adoption or special guardianship order has been made, you will need confirmation from social care of this arrangement. Please supply any letters from the relevant department. We may check with other professionals that a child resides with you.
Pregnancy 	To confirm your pregnancy	Your maternity notes or MATB1 showing the Expected Due Date (EDD). Please note that we will only include an expected child or children as giving rise to a need for an additional bedroom 14 weeks prior to the EDD.
